Creating a git repo

Repository

f1 f2 f3

folder

→ Git tool watcher
Github → Hosting service
To see a hidden folder in Mac, Cmd + shift + . (Dot) git status → checks the status of repo.

git init → adds the folder as git repo.

☆ ls -al

← Folders

① .

② ..

③ .git

Parent (Desktop)

→ ls - al

dot_ dummy _repo

.git
↓
meta data
↓
of git repo

Remote server

of git repo ↓

Desktop

Remote server

Local

→copy local git clone

github
↓
Service
git repos

Once we clone, the repo in our local system a folder is created in our desktop.

Once we edit some changes in the code, run git status,

It will show modified: helloworld.py

To see what changes have been made; git diff